POLICY

1. Introduction

- 1.1. This policy, procedure and guidance applies to all staff employed by Ivy Education Trust (IET).

2. Policy

- 2.1. Maternity and Adoption Support Leave is to be taken in accordance with national, local and statutory conditions of service. The IET's Maternity and Adoption Support Leave Policy shall apply to all employees regardless of the number of hours worked per week. Nothing in the provisions shall be construed as providing rights less favourable than statutory rights.

- 2.2. The Maternity and Adoption Support Leave Policy is provided to allow eligible employees paid leave:

- to care for a child
- to support the mother following birth
- to support an adoptive parent who is taking the main caring responsibility

There are two elements to the scheme, the statutory entitlements and the contractual entitlements. The IET's Maternity and Adoption Support Leave Policy is an amalgamation of the two sets of entitlements.

3. Principles

- 3.1. IET is committed to equality in its Maternity and Adoption Support Leave Policy. The conditions for qualification for leave and pay under this policy will not disadvantage any employee on the grounds of age, race or ethnicity, disability, gender and marital status, gender identity or sexual orientation.

PROCEDURE

4. Notification

- 4.1 An eligible employee must give 28 days' notice in writing to their line manager of their intention to take leave or in the case of an adoption within seven days of notification of matching with a child, unless this is not reasonably practicable. This letter must include:
- the expected week the baby is due or the expected date of placement in the case of adoption
 - whether they wish to take one or two weeks leave
 - the date when leave is to begin
 - the relationship of the employee to the mother or in the case of adoption, the main adopter.
- 4.2 Once the absence has been recorded on iTrent, the employee will receive necessary Maternity or Adoption Support Information letter which includes notification forms which must be completed and returned to the Trust's payroll provider as soon as possible.
- 4.3 The employee can change the date on which the leave is to be taken by giving 28 days' notice of the change of date, or as soon as is reasonably practicable in the case of a premature or delayed birth.

5. Commencement of leave

- 5.1 When the employee begins maternity or adoption support leave the line manager must ensure that the absence section in iTrent is completed, stating the date that the employee commenced maternity or adoption support leave.

6. Return to work

- 6.1 Upon return to work the line manager must ensure that the absence section in iTrent is completed, stating the date that the employee returned from maternity or adoption support leave.

GUIDANCE

7. Maternity and adoption support leave and pay eligibility and entitlement.

- 7.1 An employee with less than 26 weeks continuous service at the 15th week before the child is due or the week in which the adoptive parent is notified of having been matched with the adoptive child and is
- the child's biological father OR
 - the mother's civil / married partner or nominated carer OR
 - the child's adoptive parent who is not taking the main caring responsibility
- is entitled to take one week's leave with pay following the birth or placement (see appendix 1 and 7.4).
- 7.2 An employee with 26 weeks or more continuous service at the 15th week before the child is due and is
- the nominated carer of an expectant mother
- is entitled to take one week's leave with pay following the birth (see appendix 1 and 7.4).
- 7.3 An employee with 26 weeks or more continuous service at the 15th week before the baby is due or the week in which the adoptive parent is notified of having been matched with the adoptive child and is
- the child's biological father OR
 - the mother's civil / married partner OR
 - the child's adoptive parent who is not taking the main caring responsibility
- is entitled to take either one week's leave or two weeks leave following the birth or placement of the child (see appendix 1 and 7.4).

There is no entitlement to take odd days. This is because this option includes the statutory entitlements of leave and pay and a condition for the receipt of statutory pay is that the leave is taken in a block or blocks. Pay during the first week of leave will be full pay. Any entitlement to statutory pay will be included in this amount and the Trust will be able to offset this against the full pay. Pay during the second week of leave will be any Statutory Paternity Pay due. (An employee is eligible for Statutory Paternity Pay if their average weekly earnings are at or above the Lower Earnings Limit for National Insurance at the end of the qualifying week). (See appendix 1). Current rates are available from the Directgov website.

- 7.4 Any leave must be taken within the first year of the birth or placement of the child. If the child is born early, leave can be taken within the period from the actual date of birth up to 12 months after the first day of the expected week of confinement. Leave can start on any day of the week on or after the child's birth/date of placement. If the baby is born earlier than the fourteenth week before it is due and but for the birth occurring early the employee would have been employed continuously for 26 weeks then the employee will have been deemed to have the necessary length of service.

- 7.5 Employees wishing to take their maternity or adoption support leave flexibly (i.e. in odd days) must obtain the approval of their manager. The statutory scheme which is applicable to employees with 26 weeks or more continuous service allows for leave to be taken only in blocks of a week or two weeks. Therefore, employees who wish to take leave flexibly will only be entitled to the contractual element of the scheme which is one week.
- 7.6 Leave can be taken in two consecutive weeks or two separate, one-week blocks.
- 7.7 A qualifying employee will be entitled to paid leave if the child is stillborn after 24 weeks of pregnancy.

8. Return to Work

- 8.1 Employees are entitled to return to work to the same job following maternity or adoption support leave.

9. Pension contributions and leave

- 9.1 Teachers - During the period of paid maternity or adoption support leave, pension contributions will be paid and deducted from the teacher's pay in the usual manner. The service will count as normal for pension purposes i.e. as if the employee had been at work.
- 9.2 All other staff - During the period of paid maternity or adoption support leave, employees who are members of the Local Government Pension Scheme, will pay basic pension contributions on the pay actually received but the Trust will pay pension contributions on the pay the employee would have received had they been at work (notional pay). The pension will accrue as normal as if the employee had been at work.

10. Time off for Ante Natal Care

- 10.1 On 1st October 2014, changes to the law on time off for antenatal appointments came into force. The changes mean that from this date all employees (from day one of their employment) and agency workers (after 12 weeks in the same role) have the right to take time off to accompany a pregnant woman with whom they are having a child at up to two antenatal appointments. This time off will be unpaid.

10.2 The following employees have the right to take time off to accompany a pregnant woman with whom they are having a child at up to two antenatal appointments:

- the husband or civil partner of
- Or
- be living with the pregnancy woman in an enduring family relationship

In addition, employees will be eligible for the time off if they are:

- the biological father of the expected child
- Or
- the intended parent of a child in a surrogacy arrangement

10.3 This time off will be unpaid and it is expected that normally no more than half a day is needed for an antenatal appointment, however the right to time off includes time to travel to the appointment and any waiting time needed at the appointment. The maximum amount of time that can be taken is six-and-a-half hours on up to two occasions.

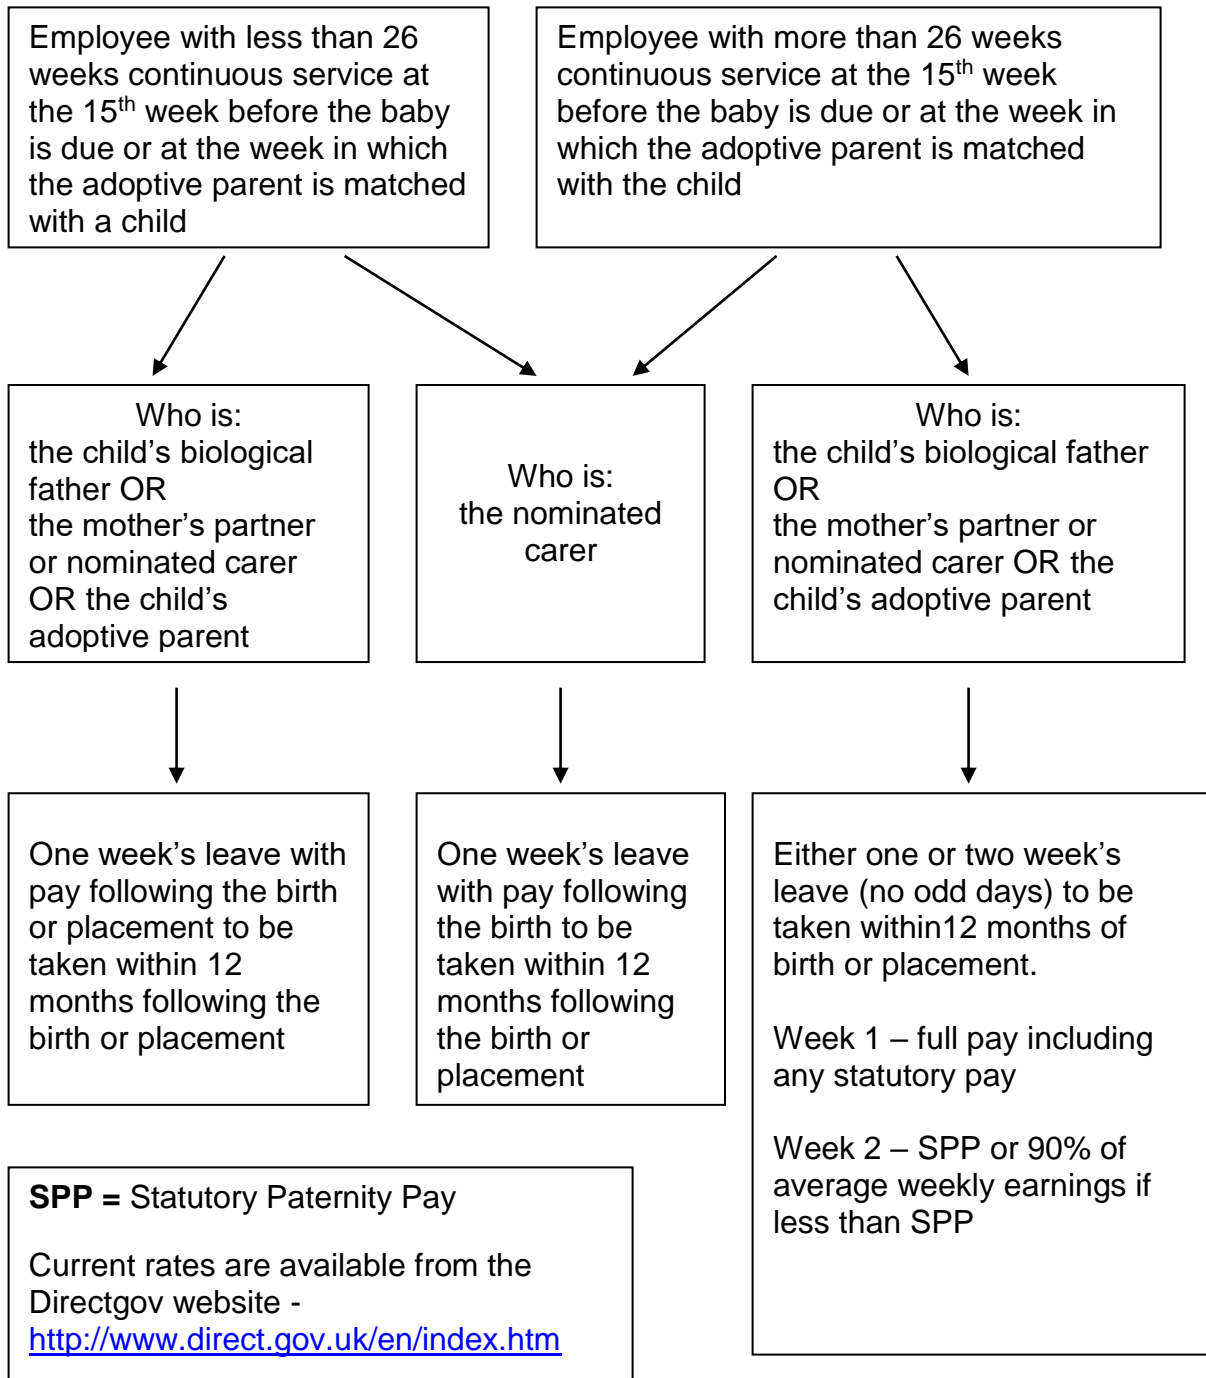

10.4 In order to request this time off, an unpaid leave absence needs to be recorded by the employee in Employee Self Service.

Please see the IET's Maternity Policy for information on Antenatal Appointments for pregnant employees.
